

Be a Part of Something Bigger!

PARK(ing) Day is an annual, worldwide event where artists, activists and citizens independently (but simultaneously) turn metered parking spots into "PARK(ing)" spaces: temporary public parks and other spaces for people to enjoy. Janet's colorful illustrations and unique educational storytelling captivate children ages 3-9. Wrapped in Grace by Wendy Tate was created to bring awareness to mental health. After her son was diagnosed paranoid schizophrenic, she knew she needed to tell their story. She creates pieces for people to wear, and part of each purchase is donated to NAMI of the Fox Valley.

4. Brewed Awakenings, 107 E. College Ave.
Mel Kolstad's current work consists of tiny dry point prints that are water colored or monoprinted. They feature bird stamps, travel scenes and everyday life. 7. CopperLeaf Boutique Hotel & Spa, 300 W. College Ave.
Live Demo of Epoxy Painting and Pouring by self-taught Appleton-based artist Joshua Canterbury, who expresses creativity through adversity. A former firefighter and recovering alcoholic, Joshua has seen the worst life has to offer and chooses to challenge himself creatively rather than succumb to the challenges of addiction. His art speaks for itself using resin/acrylic based pouring techniques.

*Be sure to enjoy the PARK(ing) Day stalls at various Art on the Town stops!

8. Angels Forever-Windows of Light, 310 W. College Ave.

12. McFleshman's Brewing Co., 115 S. State St.
Live Demo with Alexandria Wilber, a Visual Artist, Public Art Advocate and Co-Founder of The Gild. "I am drawn to organic media, such as fumage (also known as fire painting).
